2. Management Summary

This document is an effort to provide a detailed description of a To-Be developed Case Flow Management System for the Lahore High Court (LHC). Every democratic State is bound to provide expeditious justice to its citizen and similarly for LHC, it shall ensure inexpensive and expeditious justice to its people. The delay in case settling undermines the purpose of the courts itself because delaying justice often implies its negating, as said by a great British statesman William E. Gladstone in nineteenth century that "justice delayed is justice denied".

Within the Province of Punjab, it is an important Key Performance Indicator (KPI) to reduce the backlog of cases and improve the overall efficiency of case management through the use of modern technology. This document has developed a set of principles and techniques to automate the "case flow management". An efficient and automated case flow management system makes justice possible both for individual cases and the LHC.

This CFMS documentation involves the entire set of actions that the LHC takes to monitor and control the process of cases from initiation through trial or other initial disposition to the completion of all post disposition court work to make sure that justice is done promptly.

This documentation will describe the coordination of court processes and resources so that court cases progress in a timely fashion from filing to disposition. It embeds the good management practice that includes setting the case disposition time standard and continuous court control of case progress, use of differentiated case management establishing meaningful pretrial events and schedule, maximizing dispositions before setting specific trial dates, monitoring case load information systems and effective post-disposition.

Another aspect of the documentation is that the policy should be related to the court's effort to avoid future backlog and maintain a pending case inventory that is manageable in terms of workload of judges and court staff members. What constitutes a "manageable" pending case inventory? In simplest terms, it is the number of pending cases that the court can maintain and still meet its time standards without significant efforts on the part of judges and staff or undue burdens on parties and counsels. If, after having eliminated its backlog, a court disposes of as many cases each year as are filed, the size of the pending case inventory should remain relatively stable and manageable. Successful case flow management requires that a court continually measure its actual performance against the expectations reflected in its standards and goals, therefore, the court should regularly measure times of disposition and the size and age of its pending case load as well as determine whether it is disposing of as many case as are being filed, and assess the rates at which trials and other court events are being continued and rescheduled.

3. LHC Environment

This section provides an overview and identifies the assumptions made out of the business environment in which the LHC CFMS project will be implemented.

3.1 Relevant Background

Discuss any general background details that is relevant to the nature, form and content

This section documents information that was initially gathered and they point to areas where automation are introduced. It highlights bottlenecks, kinks and inefficiencies. The background is normally lost during refinement iterations of the to-be as parts of it is not directly part of the final system to be developed or procured. The author has included them to help the reader understand the overall context of the project. It also helps in understanding why certain analysis decisions were made and why specific constrains exist.

3.2 Context Diagram

3.3 Key Business Practices/Drivers

The discussions held with key members of PITB and LHC led to the following main design philosophies and drivers:

1. Differentiated and Weighted Rule-Based Case Management
2. Knowledge Driven Based Approach
3. Process re-engineering/ refactoring and role re-design
4. Biz Rules Driven, human and system task management

5. No islands: end-to-end full integration

4. Overall Scope

4.1 Problem Statement

LHC understands that the court's purposes and its long term vision is to have an effective CFMS. Hence this document is organized around the impact CFMS has on cases and justice. Acceptable court performance is impossible without effective caseflow management.

4.2 Key Business Objectives

- Knowledge of the Purposes and Responsibilities of the Courts Processes and how to apply them to CFMS;
- Knowledge of the Court Performances through CFMS, particularly the Expedition and Timeliness and Equality, Fairness, and Integrity Standards;
- Knowledge of the inherent powers of the court, which give LHC the authority to set and enforce rules, including rules designed to improve case processing;
- Knowledge of the adversarial system and the values it supports;
- Knowledge of processes and its relevance to day-to-day caseflow management;
- Knowledge of the independent responsibilities of the 4 branches of LHC and how interactions among the branches impact CFMS, timely pre, trial, and disposition case processing, and the enforcement of court orders.
- Ability to conceive, build, communicate, and implement a clear CFMS so that it is an widely-accepted system;
- Internal in-house skills in developing and using CFMS that flow from LHC-wide perspective;
- Subsequently to inform the public and the justice community about how CFMS improves the quality of justice.
- Ability to link the broad purposes of LHC to the goals of accessible, equal, fair, prompt, and economical resolution of disputes and effective CFMS;
- Knowledge of how the organization, jurisdiction of the LHC impact day-to-day CFMS;
- Knowledge of how core management functions impact CFMS including human resources, information technology, records, and facilities;
- Knowledge of case processing time standards and other CFMS key performance indicators;
- Skill in tying time standards to the number and types of cases that must be processed to meet time to disposition goals for all case types -- by year, month, week, day, and judicial division qualifications;
- Knowledge of basic caseflow axioms and principles such as early and continuous judicial control and how they produce timely and fair dispositions through CFMS for meaningful events;
- Knowledge of all case processing steps, sequences, and dynamics for all case types, including how lawyers, their clients make decisions concerning filing, case processing, and settlement;
- Knowledge of case assignment and scheduling systems and how to set up and manage daily court calendars by judge, type of case and hearing, day of the week, and time of the day (rules edit and deploy);
- Knowledge of differentiated CFMS and its application to all case types;
- Ability to create and maintain a court executive leadership team that effectively addresses CFMS (executive committee);
- Ability to develop effective CFM teams consisting of judges, court staff, and others throughout the CFMS;
- Knowledge of differing leadership styles and skills and how to build CFMS executive teams around judges and court managers with diverse administrative experiences, interests, and capabilities;

- Knowledge of the agencies and individuals, esp. outside the court, with whom the court must work successfully to bring about effective CFMS and their independent CFMS responsibilities and objectives;
- Skill in establishing and maintaining effective working relationships and finding the right balance between oversight of others with independent case management responsibilities, delegating authority to them, and micro-management;
- Knowledge of how to ensure the integrity of judicial orders;
- Ability to maintain effective partnerships among courts, the bar, community groups, and the executive and legislative branches, without a loss of either the required tension between the branches or the adversarial system.
- Ability to forecast and anticipate societal and justice system changes and trends that will impact filings and case processing;
- Knowledge of data needed for both continuous systemic evaluation and day-to-day CFMS, and how to acquire and analyze needed data;
- Skill in using statistics and objective data as well as anecdotal information when assessing CFMS, drawing appropriate conclusions, and differentiating between causes and effects when identifying and diagnosing CFM problems and challenges;
- Knowledge of basic strategic planning techniques including how to use statistics to draw appropriate conclusions about the current status and the future of the court's CFMS;
- Ability to use data to inform and, as appropriate, to influence judges and others about what is and is not working, and to persuade the bench, staff, and justice system partners, when appropriate, of the need to make changes and the feasibility of proposed solutions;
- Knowledge of the change process, how to plan change, and how to apply sound project management principles and techniques to CFMS;

4.3 Key Features

The consolidated functional requirements standards are presented as a set of major business functions common to all courts especially LHC. Although the LHC activities do not always proceed in a simple, sequential pattern, the CFMS ordered the major categories to reflect the general flow of cases through the court plus the ancillary, supporting activities and utilities needed to accomplish case processing and management. The consolidated standards model retains this same general order of functional categories common to all case types, while resolving the differences among the individual sets of standards to arrive at 20+ major business functions:

1. Case Institutionalizations
2. Case Proceeding
3. Digitization
4. Record Management
5. Docketing
6. Document Circulation and Tracking
7. Document Dispatch
8. Calendaring
9. Hearings
10. Disposition
11. Order Management
12. Adjournment
13. Post Disposition Compliance and Execution
14. Copy Management
15. Scheduling Roster Sitting
16. Configuration Maintenance, Security, and Integrity

17. Audit Log/Trail
18. Management Reporting
19. Dashboarding
20. External Integrations (Bar Counsel, Promis, NADRA, FBR, SEC)
21. Multiple Channels (iPAD, Android and Web)
22. Rules Base
23. Knowledge Management Based
24. Print and scan (Barcode)

4.4 Scope Inclusions

The in-scope inclusions are defined as follows:-

4.4.1 Manage Case

The capabilities are focused on the processes associated with the LHC. It is generally divided as follows (not necessarily in sequential order since processes do not):

1. Case Institutionalization – Focus on the activities of case creation in the LHC, it'd broadly cover the 4 judicial branches.

2. Participant – the main actor(s) involved in a case. This aspect links individuals (citizens and non-citizens), lawyer, companies and (ex) parties.

3. Disposition – Decision of the LHC and related to outcomes of a case.

4. Search – to at any time be able to search.

5. Track Case – Ability to search for cases.

6. Compliance – Making sure that case flows are compliant e.g. checklist for rejection, deadlines to be met for document submission, …

7. Reporting and dashboarding – to measure the cases

8. Lifecycle – the lifecycle of a case to support court processes from case institutionalization to disposition to be closely monitored and tracked, with meaningful events such as hearing, order, judgement, adjournment…

4.4.2 Calendar

This is an important sub-process inside case management and we provided here key points that are in scope:

1. Schedule – relates to scheduling of court resources to attend to the case

2. Administrative support – relates to the admin functionalities to support 'calendaring' so that the resources are reserved in advance

3. Calendar – The calendar once ascertained to be distributed but it should allow for other maintenance capabilities such as modification, etc. The calendar and schedule also provides for the LHC to make sure relevant information such as eDockets/Dockets are available prior to the activity.

4. Case Events – that in any case events such as dispatch of physical documents e.g. court order etc. are timely and confirmed (and acknowledged).

5. Outcomes – Outcomes are recorded and follow up actions attended to.

6. Notifications – very similar to 5.

4.4.3 Entity

These are the main parties involved in the LHC courts. They include

1. Punjab Bar Counsel – for lawyers and their latest up-to-date status

2. NADRA – for NICs of mainly individuals

3. FBR and SEC – for companies

4. Promis and FIR – for police department

5. Lower Courts and Supreme Courts

6. Government Directories – for ministries, statutory boards and agencies (government, quasi government)

7. Others – for foreigners such as passport holders

The system should allow for searchable verifications and confirmations of the entities. The maintenance of some of these entities are external and others could be within the CFMS.

4.4.4 Dockets and Records

All physical and electronic records are to be stored, archived and managed. We require an electronic record system to ensure that once the case documents are filed, both physical and electronic copies are stored and archived. In the course of a case lifecycle, more documents can be generated or received which are appended to the docket, the records can also be checked in/out of the system. When the latter happens this is logged and captured so that movements are tracked. This would also imply it is searchable.

4.4.5 Admin

There is a wide range of admin services that CFMS will require. These being

I. Configuration Maintenance, Security, and Integrity
II. Audit Log/Trail
III. Management Reporting
IV. Dashboarding
V. External Integrations (Bar Counsel, Promis, NADRA, FBR, SEC)
VI. Multiple Channels (iPAD, Android and Web)
VII. Rules editing
VIII. Database Maintenance
IX. Party(ies) Management
X. Calendar and Roster

7.1 To-Be: Case Institution

In the to-be case institution process, an electronic case institution process is introduced as parallel implementation with the over-the-counter case institution process.

7.1.1 Process 1.1.0: Over-the-Counter Case Institution

Description:

By aligning to as-is business rules, the to-be over-the-counter case institution process is improved in the following aspects:

i. Validation of NIC number with NADRA
ii. Retrieval of FIR from PROMIS
iii. Avoiding prejudice in case file scrutiny
iv. Digitization of case file

Actors:

i. Applicant
ii. Urgent Cell Personnel
iii. CFMS
iv. NADRA
v. PROMIS
vi. Urgent Cell Digitization Room

Preconditions:

None

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. The over-the-counter case institution process begins with Applicant purchasing stamp duty for court fee payment, from authorized agent.

2. At the Urgent Cell, the applicant will collect a queue number.

3. When it comes to the Applicant's turn, he/she submits petition to Urgent Cell Personnel.

4. Upon receiving petition, the Urgent Cell Personnel will immediately create a new electronic case record in CFMS, with minimal mandatory details, including but not limited to:
   i. Claimant's NIC number
   ii. Advocate's NIC number
   iii. Case category
   iv. FIR number, if applicable

v. Category (Writ, Civil, Criminal and Commercial)
vi. (if applicable) the detailed category or system will provide one
vii. Case type (urgent or motion) viii. Locality (of case) based on district name

This will ensure that the CFMS is tracking all petitions submitted, regardless of its final institution status, for future analytics and process improvement exercises.

Before a case record is created, the client-side case creation eForm will also asynchronously validate the following fields:

i. Validate claimant's NIC number with NADRA.
   - If the NIC number is found, the person's NIC details will be returned, and automatically populated into the case creation eForm.
   - Otherwise, Urgent Cell Personnel will be prompted with "NIC Not Found", or similar error message. And the electronic case record will not be created.

ii. Validate advocate's NIC number with the list of blacklisted advocates kept in CFMS
   - If the advocate NIC number is listed as blacklisted, electronic case record will not be created.

iii. Validate advocate's NIC number with the Punjab Bar Council
   - If the advocate NIC number is listed as barred, blacklisted, case record will not be created.

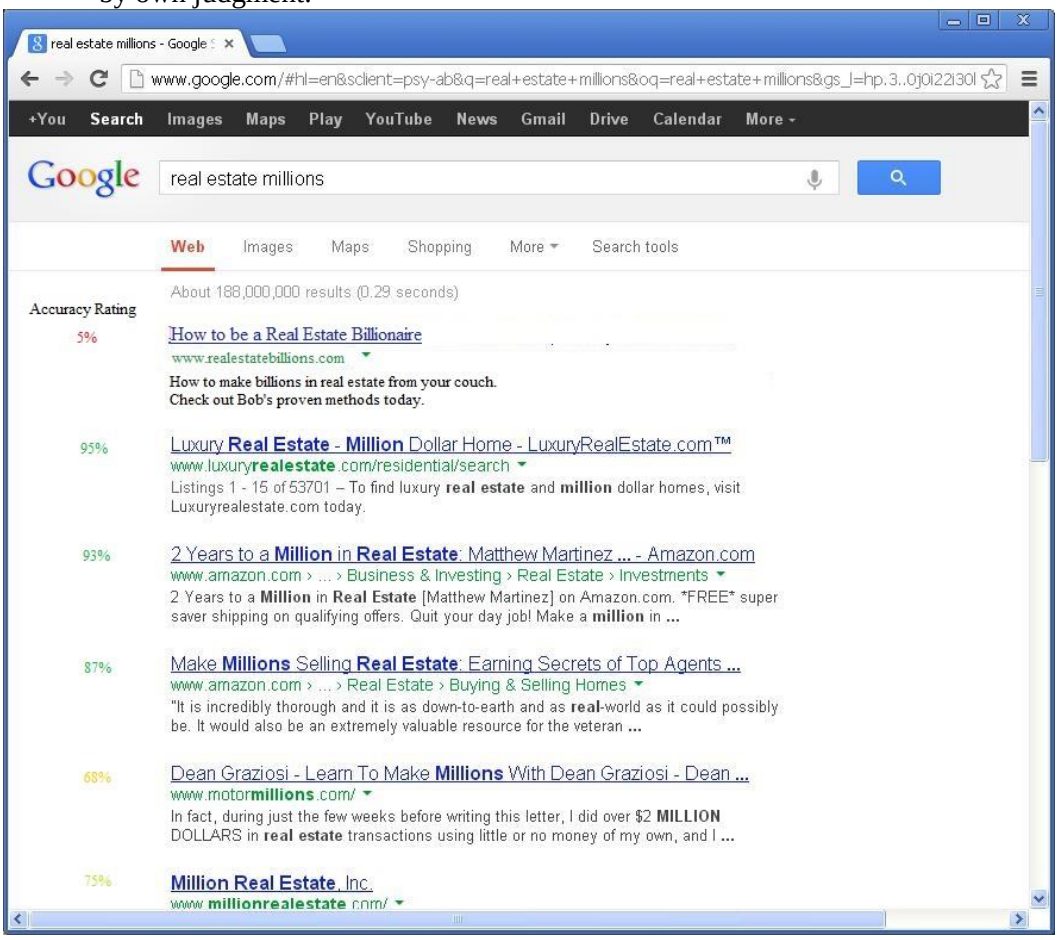

Note: above pt iii. is preferred approach with direct integration with the Punjab Bar Council's Enrolment Management System.

When the case creation eForm passed the validation rules described above, this petition will be created as electronic case record and assigned with temporary diary number.

With regards to the temporary diary number generation, current recommendation is to have a running number generator module that is unique. The algorithm recommended (but not necessary must be mandated) will be a composition of the following:
DDMMYY+HHMMSS+LOCATION+STAFFID

5. The CFMS will run a set of rules, to check for any similar existing case related to this petition. An example of such rule is to lookup for combination of the same claimant's NIC number, case category, and FIR number. These rules can be added/refined/removed from CFMS over time.
   - If similar case(s) is/are found from matching patterns, it/they will be shown to Urgent Cell Personnel as part of the intelligence to assist scrutiny process.
   - For the avoidance of duplicity or multiplicity of cases being filed, it is recommended that all cases when filed to the CFMS be indexed (and tagged). The metadata for tagging shall include (but not limited to) additional information as case nature, case brief description, any general information that pertains to the case. The objective is that the search for duplication shouldn't be limited to exact searches of (for e.g.) duplicate CNIC, or names, etc. but rather search should cover information that returns 50% and higher similarities.

The user can then decide to drill on the <100% similarities to see if these were duplicates by own judgment.

6. If this petition has a FIR number, CFMS will attempt to retrieve the identified FIR from PROMIS.
    - If FIR number is found in PROMIS, the FIR document in PDF format will be returned to CFMS, to assist scrutiny process.
    - Else, the Urgent Cell Personnel will carry out scrutiny process according to Standard Operating Procedure.

7. Urgent Cell Personnel will scrutinize this petition according to Objection Sheet/ checklist by marking a tick on each item that has passed compliance check. This measure discourages violation of scrutiny process.
    - If there isn't any objection, Urgent Cell Personnel will allocate a bench type to this case according to bench allocation guidelines. Then, this case will be officially instituted, assigned with a Unique Case Number. Note: Bench allocation in general is "automatic" based on guidelines established such as categories (where specific categories dictate either single or division benches). Especially in cases of Capital involvement in civil cases and punishment in criminal cases also ascertain single bench/ division bench decisions.
    - Else, Urgent Cell Personnel will print the checklist that summarizes objections, for Applicant's reference.
        - If Applicant accepts the objection, he/she will complete missing details, and resubmit the petition.

- Else if Applicant denies the objection, he/she will appeal the objected petition.

8. A case instituted through over-the-counter process, will proceed to Process 2.2.0: Date Fixing and Process 1.1.0: Case File Digitization.

Alternative Courses:

1. In event if the integration linkage to NADRA is down:
    - The submitted petition will be marked as "Unverified NIC".
    - Urgent Cell Personnel will proceed with the scrutiny process by following standard operating procedures.
    - When the integration service is up again, all "Unverified NIC" cases will be automatically verified with NADRA through background scheduled jobs.

2. In event if the integration linkage to PROMIS is down:
    - The submitted petition will be marked as "Pending PROMIS FIR Check".
    - Urgent Cell Personnel will proceed with the scrutiny process by following standard operating procedures.
    - When the integration service is up again, all "Pending PROMIS FIR Check" cases will be automatically queried with PROMIS to retrieve matching FIR documents, through background scheduled jobs.
    - The process of institution stops essentially. All background tasks are only done to help catch up the process when PROMIS is 'up'.
3. In event that CNIC is expired OR Person is deceased
    - No process of NADRA verification is possible
    - Applicant will be marked as "deceased" or "Expired"
    - Case will follow the objection process

Changes to Business Practices:

None.

Constraints:

None

Technical Note:

Both NADRA and PROMIS are external interfaces to the CFMS. Hence it is recommended that to ensure that CFMS can interact with these (and any other external systems) to implement a web-service(s) interface for NADRA and PROMIS. At the point in writing this understanding was noted and agreed.

7.1.2 Process 1.1.1: Case File Digitisation

Description:

In Process 1.1.0: Over-the-Counter Case Institution, an electronic record is created with minimal details for petition instituted at Urgent Cell. The full details of each instituted case will be completed by Urgent Cell Digitisation Room Personnel.

Actors:

i. Urgent Cell Digitization Room
ii. CFMS

Preconditions:

1. A petition is instituted over the counter at Urgent Cell, as described in Process 1.1.0: Over-the-Counter Case Institution.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. Instituted case will be automatically assigned to a Digitisation Room Personnel, whenever he/she has completed the digitisation of another assigned case. This process is inline with the way counter operates.

2. The assignee will complete the instituted case's electronic record with all details found on hardcopy submission. (note: to expedite in completing the case record, options include: -

    i. OCR
    ii. Electronic case document templates are provided to the litigants online. These can be downloaded and pre-populated before submission

    Can be considered to save time. Each option whilst improves efficiencies involves costs and other deployment considerations)

3. And for every supporting document attached, the assignee will scan them into images, attach them to the electronic record. In the background of CFMS, a looping system task will:
    i. Perform OCR (optical character recognition) operation on all newly scanned images, attempt to recognize Roman characters and numbers found, and convert them into text.
    ii. Index the extracted text to support full-text search.

4. Assignee will verify the text extracted from OCR, with the hardcopy supporting documents. If the result is below acceptable quality, assignee will type the text found on hardcopy supporting documents, into electronic case record.

Note: Points 2, 3 and 4 suggest the use of OCR technology. In the case should OCR proves too costly an approach, other techniques for considerations could be finalized. Other mandatory options for case institution to be made available to assignee included:

A. Downloadable templates: litigants can pre-populate the case details prior to case institution using standard template forms downloaded from the website
B. 2 step data entry: The assignee does only the mandatory entries and leaves the rest to the back office to complete.

It is to be noted that OCR is a preferable technology of choice all else not being a concern and other alternatives are not without demerits also.

Alternative Courses:

1. For cases with below-the-mark OCR result:
    - The Urgent Cell Digitisation Room Personnel will have to type the supporting document text into the electronic case record in CFMS.

Changes to Business Practices:

1. A new role will have to be introduced to Urgent Cell team – Digitisation Room. Instead of being customer-facing, the Digitisation Room Personnel is a backend role, to support Urgent Cell counters with instituted cases.

Constraints:

None

Biz Process Diagram:

Questions:

None

Notes:

1. To prevent Digitisation Room Personnel from taking advantage on the auto assignment process, a performance report should be generated, to summarize the mod, median, min time taken by each personnel to complete the digitisation for a case. These reports should take into account, the business hours, to avoid skewed analysis resulted from cases submitting during non-working hours.

7.1.3 Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution

Description:

Electronic case institution is one of the primary new processes introduced to the to-be CFMS, aiming at reducing number of petitions filed through Urgent Cell counter, improving efficiency with self-service electronic system.

Actors:

i. Applicant
ii. CFMS
iii. NADRA
iv. PROMIS

Preconditions:

None

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. Applicant visits LHC website, and login to the secured eCourt system. If Applicant doesn't have a registered eCourt account, he/she will sign-up with the eCourt system, with compulsory email address verification as part of activation process.

2. Applicant submits petition by filling up all mandatory details, and upload relevant attachment files.

   Before a case record is created, the client-side case submission eForm will also asynchronously validate the following fields:

   i. Validate claimant's NIC number with NADRA.
      - If the NIC number is found, the person's NIC details will be returned, and automatically populated into the case submission eForm.
      - Otherwise, Applicant will be prompted with "NIC Not Found", or similar error message, and denied from proceeding to the next step.

   ii. Validate advocate's NIC number with the list of blacklisted advocates kept in CFMS
      - If the advocate NIC number is listed as blacklisted, Applicant will be denied from proceeding to the next step.

3. If this petition has a FIR number, CFMS will attempt to retrieve the identified FIR from PROMIS.
   - If FIR number is found in PROMIS, the FIR document in PDF format will be returned to CFMS, to assist scrutiny process.

- Else, Applicant will be prompted with "NIC Not Found", or similar error message, and advised to attach a scanned copy of the FIR.

4. The CFMS will run a set of rules, to check for any similar existing case related to this petition. An example of such rule is to lookup for combination of the same claimant's NIC number, case category, and FIR number. These rules can be added/refined/removed from CFMS over time.
    - If similar case(s) is/are found from matching patterns, it/they will be shown to alert the Applicant. Applicant will have to either:
        - Declare that none of the listed cases is related to this petition. Even so, the matching similar cases found will still be listed to support scrutiny process.
        - Cancel the submission.

5. Applicable court fee will be shown, and Applicant will select a supported payment method.
    - Process 1.2.2: Stamp Duty
    - Process 1.2.3: Branchless Banking Agent / Bank Branch
    - Process 1.2.4: eBanking

6. When the applicable court fee is paid, the pending-scrutiny electronic case record will be assigned a temporary diary number. Summary of the submitted case and payment details will also be shown, for Applicant's reference. This case record will always be retrievable and accessible by Applicant, in CFMS.

   Otherwise if payment failed, the pending-payment electronic case record will be assigned a temporary diary number, and Applicant will have an option to revisit the payment step, to complete the submission process.

7. The submitted pending-scrutiny (court fee paid) case will go through an electronic scrutiny process documented in Process 1.2.1: Scrutiny of Electronic Case Record.
    - If there isn't any objection, this case will be officially instituted, assigned with a Unique Case Number. Applicant will be updated on the instituted case via email notification.
    - Else, Applicant will be updated on the objected case and checklist details via email notification.
        - If Applicant accepts the objection, he/she will complete missing details, and resubmit the petition.
        - Else if Applicant denies the objection, he/she will appeal the objected petition.

8. A case instituted through over-the-counter process, will proceed to Process 2.2.0: Date Fixing.

Alternative Courses:

1. In event if the integration linkage to NADRA is down:
    - There is no alternative course. A petition can only be submitted online, if the claimant's NIC number is verified. Hence the process will be stopped.

2. In event if the integration linkage to PROMIS is down:

- There is no alternative course. The process will be stopped.

Changes to Business Practices:

1. In addition to accepting petitions through hardcopy submission at Urgent Cell counter, the scope of CFMS and automations will be broaden to cater for electronic self-service submission.

Description:

This process is part of Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution, to scrutinize cases submitted electronically.

Actors:

i. CFMS
ii. Electronic Scrutiny Team

Preconditions:

1. A case submitted electronically through Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution, and applicable court fee is paid.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. A submitted pending-scrutiny case will be automatically assigned to a Electronic Scrutiny Team Member, whenever he/she has completed the scrutiny of another assigned case. This process is inline with the way counter operates.

2. Assignee will scrutinize this petition according to Objection Sheet/ checklist by marking a tick on each item that has passed compliance check. This measure discourages violation of scrutiny process.
    - If there isn't any objection, Urgent Cell Personnel will allocate a bench type to this case according to bench allocation guidelines. Objection sheet result will be saved into CFMS, and proceed to case institution activities.
    - Else, Objection sheet result will be saved into CFMS, and proceed to update Applicant on the details of objections.

7.1.5 Process 1.2.2: Payment Method to Facilitate Electronic Case Institution – Stamp Duty

Description:

This method is the current practice serving court fee payment.

Actors:

i. Applicant
ii. CFMS

Preconditions:

1. A petition in the submission process, which has passed form field validations, e.g. validated claimant's NIC number, non-blacklisted advocate, and mandatory details.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. Applicant who intends to use stamp duty as payment method, will purchase the required amount of stamp duty from authorized agent before case submission.

2. After selecting "Stamp Duty" as payment method, Applicant will:
    - Enter serial number printed on Stamp Duty
    - Upload digital copy of the Stamp Duty receipt, either by scanned, or photographed.

3. CFMS will then check if the Stamp Duty serial number is already associated to/used by an existing case record.
    - If the serial number is new, then successful payment status will be returned to Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.
    - Else if the serial number has been used, then failed payment status will be returned to Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.

7.1.6 Process 1.2.3: Payment Method to Facilitate Electronic Case Institution – Branchless Banking Agent or Bank Branch

Description:

This payment method is utilizing the rich existing network of bank branches and branchless banking agents already established in Pakistan.

Actors:

i. Applicant
ii. CFMS

Preconditions:

1. A petition in the submission process, which has passed form field validations, e.g. validated claimant's NIC number, non-blacklisted advocate, and mandatory details.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. Applicant will pay court fee to LHC, at its designated beneficiary bank account, through bank branch, or branchless banking agent.

   The payment receipt numbers will be reconciled from the appointed bank to CFMS via sFTP, daily at 12am midnight and 12pm noon. The reconciliation operations should be targeted to complete in 30 minutes.

   - For court fee paid between 12am midnight and 12pm noon, Applicant is advised to submit petition after 12.30pm noon.
   - For court fee paid between 12pm noon and 12am midnight, Applicant is advised to submit petition after 12.30am midnight.

2. After selecting "Bank Branch/ Branchless Banking" as payment method, Applicant will enter the payment receipt number into CFMS.

3. CFMS will then check if the payment receipt number matches any payment record reconciled from bank, and whether the receipt number is already associated to/used by an existing case record.
    - If the serial number is valid, then successful payment status will be returned to Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.
    - Otherwise, then failed payment status will be returned to Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.

Alternative Courses:

- Process 1.2.2: Stamp Duty
- Process 1.2.4: eBanking

Changes to Business Practices:

1. Necessary policies and legislative framework will have to be revised, to allow LHC to receive court fee through banking account with appointed bank.
2. A joint-effort will have to be agreed with the appointed bank, for the bank to reconcile all transactions paid to LHC's beneficiary account, twice a day, and upload them in agreed format, to CFMS. (This approach is practiced by US Embassy with Standard Chartered Bank, in many countries).

Constraints:

None

Notes:

1. Concern on forgery of payment receipt is eliminated.
2. Applicant will need to be aware of the earliest possible time for electronic case submission, after court fee is paid. For example, if payment is made at 9am, Applicant can only electronically submit the case after 12.30pm noon on the same day.

7.1.7 Process 1.2.4: Payment Method to Facilitate Electronic Case Institution – eBanking

Description:

This is the most seamless and real-time payment method for online facility, but also poses the highest degree of system complexity and requires readiness of online banking infrastructure.

Actors:

i. Applicant
ii. CFMS
iii. eBanking System

Preconditions:

1. A petition in the submission process, which has passed form field validations, e.g. validated claimant's NIC number, non-blacklisted advocate, and mandatory details.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. After selecting “eBanking” as payment method, Applicant will be routed to eBanking Service of the selected bank.

2. The designated eBanking System will redirect Applicant to the eBanking Login.

3. Upon successful login, Applicant will request for OTP (One-Time Password) through the eBanking system. The OTP will be sent by eBanking system, to Applicant’s registered mobile phone number as SMS.

   OTP serves as an implementation of 2-phase authentication for added security measure.

4. Applicant enters the OTP received in SMS, into CFMS.

5. eBanking System will then validate the OTP.
   - If OTP is successfully validated, the agreed court fee amount will be debited from Applicant’s bank account. Then, successful payment status will be returned to Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.
   - Otherwise, then failed payment status will be returned to Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.

Alternative Courses:

- Process 1.2.2: Stamp Duty
- Process 1.2.3: Branchless Banking Agent / Bank Branch

Changes to Business Practices:

1. Necessary policies and legislative framework will have to be revised, to allow LHC to receive court fee through banking account with appointed bank.
2. eBanking facility must be established by the appointed bank.
3. Cross-system payment integration must be supported by the appointed bank’s infrastructure.

Constraints:

1. Establishment of eBanking facility is not within the scope of CFMS. CFMS will on the other hand, be relying on eBanking integration services established by the appointed bank.

7.1.8 Case Number Format

Case number could be barcoded on the folder and electronically generated with:

i. where it is filed (LHC, Multan… - each is given a unique #)
ii. when it is filed (DDMMYY, HH:MM - Date/Time Stamp)
iii. Case genre (Civil, Criminal... - we'll adhere to current numbering if possible)
iv. StaffID

With regards to case number generation, current recommendation is to have a running number generator module that is unique. The algorithm recommended (but not necessary must be mandated) will be a composition of the following: DDMMYY+HHMMSS+GENRE+LOCATION+STAFFID or any order

However do note that each vendor can always recommend a unique approach to the implementation of case number.

7.2 To-Be: Scheduling

In the to-be scheduling processes:

i. Sitting roster is automatically generated
ii. Date fixing is assisted by calendaring system to improve certainty of trial date
iii. Activities are updated electronically throughout hearing processes
iv. Adjournment is submitted and processed electronically.

7.2.1 Process 2.1.0: Sitting Roster

Description:

Sitting roster is the tentative schedule of honorable judges sitting at principal seat or benches. Roster also provides the information about bench constitution – who will sit in which bench. The to-be CFMS provides sitting roster generator facility, enabling Chief Justice to generate sitting roster through automated rules in shorter time. Sitting roster will further be used in fixation of particular case with specific court.

Actors:

i. CFMS
ii. Chief Justice

Preconditions:

1. In CFMS, part of the master data setup module is to configure judge's area of specialization. For example, Justice A may be assigned to benches for civil, tax, banking matters, but not murder reference. This information is used by CFMS to tabulate bench constitution.
2. CFMS also maintains a calendar of judge's availability. Examples of unavailability are:
    - Scheduled hearing session
    - Approved time-off, such as leave or special research
3. CFMS also takes into account the nature and number of cases pending at different locations and judges (with their relevant strengths) at each location. This is to find the best fit for cases to judges.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. Chief Justice initiates to generate sitting roster by clicking on the designated module function, and select the time frame of roster to be tabled.

2. CFMS will retrieve case categories and bench types scheduled for the selected time frame. Optionally, Chief Justice can specify any other additional case categories and bench types to be to be included into the roster.

3. CFMS will:
    i. Get judges who are responsible for each case category and bench type.
    ii. Filter out matching judges who are not available in the selected time frame.
    iii. Tabulate a suggested sitting roster.

4. Chief Justice will review the suggested sitting roster, and make any necessary amendment onto the roster, if needed, and save the sitting roster.

5. CFMS will notify all judges on the new sitting roster, via email.

7.2.2 Process 2.2.0: Date Fixing

Description:

Date fixation process involves deciding the next hearing date of each case. CFMS adopts the resource booking timetable concept for to-be date fixing, where by, capacity of each resource is known and shouldn't be booked beyond availability. Examples of resource in this context:

i. Hearing session that matches the required bench. For example, if preliminary hearing of single bench rent & family cases is configured with 15 minutes for each period, there will be 4 available sessions for this type case, in every hour.
ii. Advocate's availability. If Advocate A has a case hearing scheduled, CFMS will not suggest the same date and period for another case he/she is representing.
iii. Number of court rooms available.

Actors:

i. Urgent Cell
ii. CFMS

iii. Honorable Judge

Preconditions:

1. A fresh case instituted from Process 1.1.0: Over-the-Counter Case Institution, or Process 1.2.0: Electronic Case Institution.
2. Or, a case that is to be reheard for preliminary hearing, as described in Process 3.1.0: Preliminary Hearing.
3. Or, a case that is to be reheard for regular hearing, as described in Process 3.2.0: Regular Hearing.

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. For a fresh case:
    i. When an instituted case is assigned with case number, Urgent Cell will allocate bench type to the case, following by date fixing.

    ii. CFMS supports Urgent Cell with hearing date suggestion, by automating business rules/constraints/factors into the formation, for examples:
        - Urgency: Cases that fulfilled criteria as "urgent case" will be heard within X days from date of institution; otherwise, the earliest schedule is X days after date of institution. X is configurable.
        - Case category, and bench type allocated
        - Open hearing periods matching the case category and bench type requirement
        - Advocate's availability
        - Related judge: If one of the involving parties has a previous case within the same category heard by Judge A, date fixing mechanism can prioritize the same judge.

    iii. The available hearing sessions are tabulated on a calendar in timetable format, and Urgent Cell Personnel should only choose one of the available sessions. This will ensure that a booked hearing session (resource) is not available for another case, and will tremendously improve the certainty of trial date.

2. For a case that is to be reheard for preliminary hearing, or a case to be heard with regular hearing:
    i. Hearing date can either be set by Honorable Judge during case proceeding or the concerned court. Either way, CFMS will assist by tabulating suggested hearing date based on business rules/constraints/factors configured in CFMS (examples are described in 1.ii above).

Alternative Courses:

None

Changes to Business Practices:

1. LHC needs to consider revising the definition of "urgent case", to avoid abuse that ultimately resulting to clashes of hearing date being a day-to-day norm in the court. It is also to be noted that urgency based on case category may not fully applicable as there are categories in which some cases of urgent nature and some are ordinary matters within same category. For current context:
    i. Default is non-urgent case unless manually intervened
    ii. Each legal branch to work on each category (and subcategory) what rules help define the case as urgent. For e.g. criminal case involving death penalty is a rule and hence demands urgent attention
    iii. ~~Introducing higher court fee for cases to be heard urgently~~
2. LHC should also consider adjusting the earliest hearing date for non-urgent cases, from 2 days after date of institution, to at least 3 days after institution date. This is to allocate adequate free hearing sessions for urgent cases, and eliminate the issue of clashes in scheduled session.

7.2.4 Process 2.4.0: Cause List

Description:

Cause list is a schedule of cases hearing in the courts. From the hearing sessions scheduled through Process 2.2.0: Date Fixing, CFMS will be able to automatically generate the cause list for Chief Justice's approval.

Actors:

i. CFMS
ii. Chief Justice

Preconditions:

1. At least a case has been scheduled through Process 2.2.0: Date Fixing.

    - Bench type allocated to a case
    - Honourable Judge assigned to a case

4. If amendment is needed, Chief Justice will make necessary changes, and save the cause list.

5. CFMS sends email notification to all Honorable Judges and concerned parties.

   Note: Cause list design should be configurable with respect to the choice of individual Hon'ble Judges

Actors:

i. Applicant
ii. CFMS
iii. Assignee
iv. Concerned Branch
v. Copying Section

Preconditions:

None

Biz Process Flow Text:

1. Applicant logs into Secured eCourt System, and search for a case by Case Number.

2. Applicant selects a case to request for attested copy.

3. A fixed deposit amount will be charged for every issuance request, and applicant can confirm the request by selecting a supported payment method:

5. Upon Concerned Branch receiving the application, it will be scrutinized according to guidelines.
    i. If the copy request is approved, the Copying Section will print the requested copy, identified by Case Number, from CFMS. In order to prevent forgery, attested copy will be printed with watermark, and the watermark image is different from on-the-screen view.
    ii. Each printing activity will be logged into audit trail by CFMS to promote accountability.
    iii. Printing Section will check if the document is correctly printed.

i. If yes, Applicant will be notified on the copy ready for collection. Applicant will pay the difference between actual printing cost and deposit paid, while collecting the attested copy.
ii. Otherwise, Copying Section will have to reprint.

iv. If there is any objection, applicant will be notified on the rejected copy request via email.

7.4.2 Record Room Management

Description:

Record Room is a warehouse where physical case files are kept.

Problems:

1. Checking-out and in of case files are not tracked, or poorly recorded at the moment.
2. Unable to identify the current handler of a specific case file that isn't found in Record Room

Solutions:

1. Produce a new folder for each case, (optionally) on high quality tear-resistant material.
2. Print a sticker of barcode which identifies a case, on each folder.
3. Barcodes can be printed in batch, for a set of case numbers, to improve efficiency.
4. Check-in to, and check-out from Record Room, by scanning the bar code on the folder.

Questions:

None

Notes:

This process of integration with Supreme and District Courts for verification can be provided by the CFMS as an API call (similar to the API approach for Sitting Roster). The courts can remotely access CFMS via an authorized login ID and password, then proceed to make an API call (such as the record ID as a parameter) to obtain the specific record.
